

420 Class Charter

This charter applies to sailors, their parents and those supporting sailors

Aim: to promote fun, safe and healthy experiences for all those involved with the class, including sailors, parents, support persons and officials

Expected behaviours:

1. Demonstrate good sportsmanship and abide by the sailing rules while on the water, and to act as an ambassador for the class, and the sport, when off the water
2. Show respect for other participants, coaches, instructors, officials, parents and volunteers at all times
3. To be responsible for, and considerate in, your use of social media
4. To behave responsibly towards the use of alcohol

Prohibited behaviours

1. Not to use abusive language, swear, intimidate, bully (online or otherwise) or show a lack of respect for others or their property
2. Not to use recreational drugs in any form
3. Not to anything which causes or might cause the GBR 420 Class to be brought into disrepute

Parents

1. Support your child's involvement in the class
2. Uphold this charter yourself, and encourage your children to do so
3. Support the efforts of the class to uphold this charter
4. Use established procedures if you have a concern of a dispute

RYA Anti-Doping Rules

The RYA anti-doping rules apply to anyone in the United Kingdom who has agreed (either in writing or by their conduct) to be bound by the Racing Rules of Sailing. Athlete Support Personnel, for example coaches, parents or guardians, and physiotherapists, also have several responsibilities under the rules. <https://www.rya.org.uk/racing/british-youth-sailing/anti-doping>